Photography Contest

Showcasing Capella's Communities

PURPOSE

Photos in the Purpose Category show the spirit of the people in our communities as well as how they care for their friends, their family, and those in need.

PURPOSE CATEGORY - 1st Place

Lynda Beason, Reimbursement Specialist

Saint Mary's Regional Medical Center, Russellville, Arkansas

This photo was taken in Pottsville which is about 10 minutes from Russellville. The house seen burning in the picture was used for training purposes. This is the only chance the volunteer firefighters' families are given the opportunity to see exactly what their family members experience each time they leave home for the call of duty. Wesley Beason, Lynda's 22 year old son, has been a volunteer with the Pottsville Fire Department since he was 17.

PURPOSE CATEGORY - 2nd Place

*Steve Singleton, OR Materials Coordinator
Willamette Valley Medical Center McMinnville, Oregon*
Called "Raise Your Glass," this photo paired WVMC (which is in the heart of wine country) with a local winery to raise breast cancer awareness by making a Pink Glove Dance video. This was taken during the video shoot.

PURPOSE CATEGORY - 3rd Place

*Lea Statler, Payroll Coordinator
Southwestern Medical Center, Lawton, Oklahoma*
This was taken at a local "Run or Dye" charity race in Elmer Thomas Park in Lawton. Proceeds benefitted the Holiday in the Park organization.

PURPOSE CATEGORY - 4th Place (tie)

Mandy Golleher, Marketing Director

National Park Medical Center, Hot Springs, Arkansas

NPMC Employees and Volunteers serve lunch to the Habitat for Humanity volunteers during their annual "Blitz Build" where volunteer workers build 2 houses in one day.

PURPOSE CATEGORY – 4th Place (tie)

*Andrea Singleton, Surgical Tech,
Willamette Valley Medical Center, McMinnville, Oregon*

This photo - "Dance for Cancer Awareness" - was taken at a local family-owned nursery during filming of WVMC's Pink Glove Dance video for breast cancer awareness.

PURPOSE CATEGORY - 5th Place

Andrea Singleton, Surgical Tech

Willamette Valley Medical Center, McMinnville, Oregon

Called "In Memoriam," this photo was taken at a local WWII Memorial. Andrea says that it "evokes a beautiful ghostly memory of the bravery and blood spilled for our freedoms and rights as Americans and Oregonians."

PLACES

Photos in the Places Category show us scenes that capture the essence of the unique communities served by Capella's hospitals.

PLACES CATEGORY – 1st Place

*Cindy Draper, Director of Cardiac Rehab/Education
National Park Medical Center, Hot Springs, Arkansas*

This photo was taken in Hot Springs on Lake Catherine.

PLACES CATEGORY - 2nd Place

Andrea Singleton, Surgical Tech

Willamette Valley Medical Center, McMinnville, Oregon

The young lion cubs at the local zoo were in a playful mood when Andrea took this picture of her daughter Jennifer playing “patty cake” with one of them through the glass. The Oregon rain couldn’t dampen the cub’s curiosity or their family’s fun.

PLACES CATEGORY - 3rd Place

Dr. W. Kirk Harris, Family Practitioner

Capital Medical Center, Olympia, Washington

This photo of Mount Rainier is taken from Tumwater Hill on a rare snowy – yet crystal clear – day in 2014.

PLACES CATEGORY - 4th Place

Julie Williams, LSW, Social Worker, Senior Care National Park Medical Center, Hot Springs, Arkansas
This photo was taken in Hot Springs on Stonebridge Road, approximately 5 miles from the hospital. Julie had arranged for photos to be taken of her family here, and was very glad she took her own camera along because it was such a beautiful fall day.

PLACES CATEGORY - 5th Place

*Kathy Van Horne, Director of HRIS
Capella corporate office, Franklin, Tennessee*

Cowgirls like to wear their pearls even when wearing spurs. The attire is seen here on the front porch along with Kathy's loyal friend (Diesel, an American Bull dog).

PLACES CATEGORY - 6th Place

Steve Singleton, OR Materials Coordinator

Willamette Valley Medical Center, McMinnville, Oregon

When Steve went out one dewy Oregon morning to take photos, he turned around and saw this. He says it's "a perfect show of how we love our area in the Willamette Valley" and calls the photo "Nature Lover."

PLACES CATEGORY - Honorable Mention

Julie Schwent, BSN, RN, Cardiac Rehab,

Mineral Area Regional Medical Center, Farmington, Missouri

Julie took this photo on her family's farm in the community of French Village, just outside of Farmington. It was taken shortly after her husband cleared some of the snow from their driveway .

PLACES CATEGORY – Honorable Mention

Steve Singleton, OR Materials Coordinator

Called “Riding the Fence,” this photo shows a perfectly posed grasshopper. Taken on one of the many farms surrounding McMinnville and WVMC, it’s a simple rural portrait from a diverse agricultural area.

PLACES CATEGORY - Honorable Mention

Lea Statler, Payroll Coordinator

Southwestern Medical Center, Lawton, Oklahoma

This photo was taken at the Wichita Mountains Wildlife Refuge, where this bison lives with a herd that was started in 1905. It began with the donation of 15 bison given by the American Bison Society and others who were interested in the preservation of the American Bison. Today they have a thriving herd.

PEOPLE

Photos in the People Category show us individuals from all walks of life, including people of all ages at work and play. This is who we are. This is who we serve.

PEOPLE CATEGORY - 1st Place

*Tricia Bentley, LPN, Millard Henry Clinic
Saint Mary's Regional Medical Center
Russellville, Arkansas*

PEOPLE CATEGORY - 2nd Place

*Maria Moore, Registered Respiratory Therapist
Mineral Area Regional Medical Center, Farmington, Missouri*

The photo is of Maria's first and only grandbaby, Cooper, taken during her favorite time of year. Having a grandchild has given Maria and her husband "a new sense of purpose and so much joy without the responsibility and stress of being a parent! "

PEOPLE CATEGORY - 3rd Place

*Steve Singleton, OR Materials Coordinator
Willamette Valley Medical Center, McMinnville, Oregon*

Steve's daughter Brooke, posing for pictures in the fall leaves, closed her eyes to capture the serenity of the moment. He calls the resulting photo "Autumn Sleep".

PEOPLE CATEGORY - 4th Place

Andrea Singleton, Surgical Tech

Willamette Valley Medical Center, McMinnville, Oregon

Andrea's stepdaughter Brooke was having fun at the local library and the surrounding park on this beautiful sunny Oregon day.

PEOPLE CATEGORY - 5th Place

Dr. W. Kirk Harris, Family Practitioner

Capital Medical Center, Olympia, Washington

Dr. Harris says that the intention of this self-portrait is to “represent physicians of Washington State. I look normal, but everything around and behind me is upside-down and backwards. My shirt says ‘I’m Possible,’ with the message meaning that anybody should have access to healthcare, and that I am one of many physicians in our fine state that provides that.”

A young boy with brown hair, wearing a white hoodie and dark shorts, is crouching on a dark, rocky shore. He is looking down into a small, shallow tide pool. The water in the pool is dark and reflects the surrounding rocks. The background consists of large, dark, textured rocks, some of which are covered in green algae or moss. The lighting is natural, suggesting an outdoor setting during the day.

PEOPLE CATEGORY - 6th Place

Brant Gates, RN

Willamette Valley Medical Center, McMinnville, Oregon

Brant's son Dominic explores the tide pools at Cape Perpetua on the Oregon Coast.

PEOPLE CATEGORY - Honorable Mention

Lea Statler, Payroll Coordinator

Southwestern Medical Center, Lawton, Oklahoma

The Lawton fire fighters had a fun day giving the circus elephant a bath.

PEOPLE CATEGORY - Honorable Mention

Angie Newton, Assistant Business Office Manager for Millard Henry Clinic, an affiliate of St. Mary's Regional Medical Center, Russellville, Arkansas

Angie's granddaughter, Madison, enjoys a ride on her great, great aunt's tire swing while visiting for a family reunion. "She loved the tire swing and said, 'Grandma, you need to get one of these!' Come summer, this Grandma WILL have a tire swing at her house!"

PEOPLE CATEGORY - Honorable Mention

Mandy Golleher, Director of Marketing

National Park Medical Center, Hot Springs, Arkansas

Mandy's 5-year-old niece, Hayden, loves playing in the leaves at her Grammy's House in the Fall. This photo was taken on Thanksgiving, and almost makes all that leaf-blowing worth it!
